

NT2 Collagen™

Supports joint comfort and mobility

Item #02231 • 40 mg • 60 small capsules

Normal wear and tear can affect joint cartilage as you age, eventually causing the shock-absorbing lining of your joints to break down. This leads to joint discomfort and stiffness and can interfere with daily activities. Our NT2 Collagen™ formula supports joint comfort, flexibility, and a healthy inflammatory response.

- This formula delivers an undenatured form of type II collagen
- Clinically shown to promote healthy joint flexibility and function
- Has also been shown to help inhibit joint discomfort
- Balances immune response to help inhibit inflammation

NT2 Collagen™ is available in our ArthroMax® Advanced joint health formula, but it's also available in this stand-alone supplement at an outstanding value. Add it to your joint health regimen today!

NT2 Collagen™ is manufactured by Bioibérica.
